WARNING: CONTAINS SATIRE

The dangers of arbitrary and inconsistent viewpoint censorship are only exacerbated when enforced by police states (that masquerade as democracies) using opaque procedures that fall egregiously short of due process and are insensitive to context, such as sarcasm, comedy, lampooning, parody, humor, satire and socio-political commentary.

Between the Republicans' ballot-flipping voting machines and their severely gerry-mandered districts, I could get 75% of the vote and still lose a Senate race. My best bet is to run as a Democratic Presidential nominee and hope that Andrew Yang gives me a spot in his Cabinet when he wins the whole thing in 2020.
